

I demand that the FCC reverse its course of siding with big business interests against the people of the U.S. You are an agency that should serve the public interest not those that give you unholy bribes!

Do not mess with the federal or state No-Call Lists. Keep the jerk-off telemarketers out!